

The Default Levy must be paid in full by Market Participants by 10am on the eighth Business Day following the date of the Default. By 2pm on the eighth Business Day following the date of the Default, the IMO allocates the total Default Levy amounts received on a pro-rata basis to all Market Participants who were short paid as a result of the Default. At the end of the Financial Year the IMO will aggregate any shortfall

