

Code of Conduct Justice for the Peace

General behaviour

- 1. The Code of Conduct is a set of principles and standards that guide the behaviour of all staff and volunteers of the organization.
- 2. It is the responsibility of all staff and volunteers to uphold the Code of Conduct and to report any breaches to the appropriate authorities.
- 3. The Code of Conduct is designed to ensure the highest standards of integrity, honesty, and professionalism in all our dealings.
- 4. It is essential that all staff and volunteers understand the Code of Conduct and its implications for their work.
- 5. The Code of Conduct is a living document that will be reviewed and updated as necessary to reflect changes in the organization and the external environment.

Code of Interest

Judicial responsibility

- 1. All staff and volunteers must adhere to the highest standards of judicial responsibility and impartiality.
- 2. They must avoid any conflicts of interest and ensure that their actions are based solely on the merits of the case.

Code of Ethics

- 1. The Code of Ethics sets out the fundamental principles and values that guide the organization's conduct.
- 2. It is the responsibility of all staff and volunteers to ensure that their actions are consistent with these principles and values.