

Managing Director
Carabiner Architects

David Karotkin has over 30 years' experience from a career spanning the United Kingdom, Israel, the USA, Europe, Asia, and Australia. He has worked on diverse projects in master-planning, education precincts, heritage, waterside developments, and public works. He specialises in the design of public buildings and places, where people interact and communities can flourish.

He is a Life Fellow of the Royal Australian Institute of Architects and a recipient of the American Institute of Architects (Hon) Presidential Medal.

He has also served on Design Review Panels for the Town of Cambridge and the Cities of Perth and Stirling.
