

State Design Review Panel Biographies

Elisabetta (Libby) Guj Gresley Abas Architects Libby Guj is a multi-award-winning architect working in higher education design, civic cultural and public architecture, and housing for the homeless and other not for profit organisations.

Libby is a past director and principal of JCY Architects and has been a juror for Awards programs within Western Australia and interstate as well has having spoken in numerous events nationally and internationally. She was awarded a Black Moon Award by Edith Cowan University and Kurongkurl Katitjin for her contribution housing, cultural projects involving Aboriginal communities, the arts, as well as broader community and infrastructure projects throughout Western Australia. She has held posts as an educator at Ourtin University and The University of Western Australia where she has been a tutor,