

State Design Review Panel Biographies

Director

Studio Roam

Sally is the Director of an innovative emerging practice, delivering work across the residential, education, and hospitality sectors. Prior to establishing her own business, Sally spent over a

Sally is passionate about improving residential design and removing barriers to home ownership in Western Australia. She has worked on large-scale masterplanning projects in metropolitan Perth and remote and regional Western Australia and understands the importance of culture and

Sally maintains a connection with academia by regularly contributing to the Architecture and Interior Architecture programs at Curtin University and the University of Notre Dame.