

Managing Director
Blackwell & Associates

Tony formally commenced his professional career in Sydney where he worked for Bruce Mackenzie on projects such as Sir Joseph Banks Park on the shores of Botany Bay, the Australian Defence Force Academy in Canberra, and Brisbane International Airport.

In 1987, wishing to pursue his own context driven design philosophy and seeing an opportunity in Perth, he established BLACKWELL & associates – landscape architects & urban designers.