

Section 32 of the

When a dutiable transaction provides for a payment that is contingent on a future event happening, we will determine the dutiable value with regard to the highest possible consideration

