

Clearing limited to five hectares a year (limited clearing exemptions) ¹

When do I require a permit?

The Environmental Protection Act 1986 (EP Act) requires

Environmentally sensitive areas

The exemptions described in this fact sheet do not apply in environmentally sensitive areas.

Environmentally sensitive areas can be viewed from the Department of Environment Regulation's (DER) 'Native Vegetation Map Viewer' at www.der.wa.gov.au/nvp in the 'data' section.

What other requirements are there for the limited clearing exemptions?

Each limited clearing exemption has its own requirements. These are outlined below.

Clearing to construct a building

This limited clearing exemption allows the landowner to clear a site for the lawful construction of a building or other structure. All relevant building approvals must be obtained prior to commencing the clearing. The clearing is to be limited to the extent necessary for the construction.

This exemption does not extend to riparian vegetation. Riparian vegetation includes vegetation growing on the edges of a stream, river or wetland.

Clearing for firewood

This limited clearing exemption allows the landowner or occupier to obtain firewood from their property for their own domestic heating or cooking. This exemption does not allow you to kill live vegetation or prevent the regrowth of vegetation. You can not clear under this exemption if firewood can be obtained from vegetation already cleared for another purpose.

Clearing to provide fencing and farm materials

This limited clearing exemption allows the landowner or occupier of the property, on which the vegetation is located, to obtain materials for constructing and maintaining fences, buildings and other structures.

This exemption does not allow you to kill live vegetation or prevent the regrowth of vegetation. You can not clear under this exemption if material can be obtained from vegetation already cleared for another purpose.

Clearing for woodwork

This limited clearing exemption allows the landowner or occupier of the property to clear to provide timber for their own non-commercial woodwork. Woodwork includes furniture making, wood turning or carving. This exemption does not allow you to kill live vegetation or prevent the regrowth of vegetation. You can not clear under this exemption if timber can be obtained from vegetation already cleared for another purpose.

Clearing along a fence line – alienated land

This limited clearing exemption allows the landowner to clear land for a fence line on, or within, the property to the width necessary to provide access to construct or maintain a fence.

Clearing for vehicular tracks

This limited clearing exemption allows the landowner to clear land to construct a vehicular track on their property. Clearing is only exempt if:

- the clearing is no wider than necessary
- the vegetation is not in a road reserve
- there is at least 100m between that track and any other cleared land that can be used for the intended purpose of the track
- the vegetation is not riparian vegetation (unless there is no reasonable alternative route and the track is necessary for the commercial activities carried out on the property).

Clearing for walking tracks

This limited clearing exemption allows the landowner to clear land to construct a walking track on their property. Clearing is only exempt if:

- the clearing is no wider than necessary
- the track is to be used by pedestrians or there is a reasonable expectation that it will be used by pedestrians.

Clearing isolated trees

This limited clearing exemption allows the landowner to clear an isolated tree on their property. A tree is considered to be an isolated tree when it is in a cleared area that is more than 50m from any other native vegetation. For the purpose of this exemption, this is taken to include all trees that are more than 50m away from any other native vegetation.
